New housing coming to Crinan Street, Invercargill

Kāinga Ora – Homes and Communities has confirmed agreement to purchase two developments on Crinan Street, Invercargill.

The first development is at 257 Crinan Street and comprises of four 1-bedroom homes and four 2-bedroom homes. These homes will all have off street parking available to them. This project is nearing completion and is due for completion in the coming weeks.

The second development is at 181 Crinan Street and comprises of 13 x 2-bedroom homes. All the homes will have off street parking available to them. The development is scheduled to be completed in August 2023.

Both of these developments will provide long-term warm, dry homes for whānau most in need of a place to call home. The new homes will be fully insulated, with carpets, curtains, and double glazing.

Who will live in the new homes?

These developments will get more people into suitable, healthy accommodation. Kāinga Ora will match these new homes to individuals and families on the Ministry of Social Development's Housing Register, with the highest priority for a home of that size and in that location.

Supporting tenants

We always help our new customers settle in to their new home and community. A key focus of ours is to ensure that customers understand their responsibilities and that includes being good neighbours and connecting with their communities. Kāinga Ora is also looking at new ways of how we support customers and help them connect to support services when and if they need it.
